

J. DWAYNE GARNETT

LOVE ADVOCATE & VALUE-BASED EDUCATOR

Parrish "Ham" Womble Distinguished Service Award Recipient

J. Dwayne Garnett, a Love Advocate and Value-Based Educator, is a recipient of the prestigious Parrish "Ham" Womble Distinguished Service Award. As the visionary founder and CEO of Love Is A Parable, he specializes in solving the unique needs of individuals and organizations through a value-based approach. Drawing from senior and executive-level leadership experience, Garnett is renowned as an inspiring speaker, esteemed author, and trusted consultant committed to fostering personal acceptance, reflective storytelling, and togetherness through the power of value-based education.

Garnett's expertise has made him a highly sought-after speaker, delivering impactful keynote addresses, training sessions, and workshops for a diverse array of audiences and occasions. Notable engagements include the Holly Springs Chamber of Commerce Workforce Development Series, Wake County Health and Human Services, Benedict College, Voorhees University, and numerous others. His insights have garnered attention from prestigious publications such as Main & Broad Magazine, and he has shared his wisdom as a featured guest on PBS North Carolina's Black Issues Forum.

As a dynamic and captivating orator, Garnett ignites audiences with his passion for living with purpose and intention. His speaking repertoire covers a wide spectrum of topics including value-based education, personal and professional development, diversity, equity, and inclusion, career readiness, recruitment and sales strategies, organizational management, and conflict navigation.

In his role as CEO of Love Is A Parable, Garnett continues to catalyze positive change within communities, empowering individuals and organizations to address their distinct needs while fostering unity and embracing the power of value-based education. For further insights into the impactful work of J. Dwayne Garnett, visit their website at loveisaparable.com.

AVAILABLE FOR SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS, CONSULTATIONS, AND WORKSHOP FACILITATIONS